ACFL TRAINS LABOR LEADERS

LABOR CADRE SCHOOL OPENS -- Wen-hui Pao, 11 Nov 49

T'ien-ching, 10 November (NCNA) -- On 8 November 1949, the opening ceremony for the All-China Federation of Labor Cadre School was held in T'ien-ching.

Prominent figures who participated in the ceremony included: Li Li-san, Vice Chairman of the ACFL and newly appointed President of the Cadre School; Liu Tzu-chiu, Minister of Culture and Education, and Huang Hua-ch'ing, Chairman of the Preparatory Committee of the T'ien-ching General Labor Union.

President Li said that the purpose of this school is to train leaders in labor tactics and methods of organizing workers; to study China's labor movement and the Chinese revolution; and to study Soviet methods and the philosophies of Marx, Lenin, and Mao.

During the past 2½ months 300 million yuan in Northeast currency has been spent to subsidize the traveling expenses of approximately 5,000 persons.

The Northeast People's government formed a committee to recruit technicians to assist in the economic reconstruction of its area. Representatives were sent to various north and east China areas to seek eligible personnel. Between early September and early November, 2,017 individuals volunteered. These included college students, teachers, specialists, and technicians from Pei-p'ing, T'ien-ching, Shang-hai, Nan-ching, Hang-chou, etc. Over 1,500 of those who volunteered have already been placed in the northeast area.
